Shortage of Officials!

First - Please remember to be patient and respectful of our Officials. Many of them are new, and others are stretched thin; trying to ensure as many games as possible have officiating, in order to avoid cancellations.

Hockey Calgary / Central Region are experiencing a shortage of Officials this season, which in part is due to COVID-19 and the limited recruiting opportunities that were available last season, due to the shutdown.

League games and tournaments do have priority when scheduling Officials; however, even these games have less Referees officiating. Exhibition games have even been cancelled due to the shortage.

If you have ever considered 'picking up the whistle', and donning 'the stripes', this is a great time to get into the game.

To become certified as an Official in Calgary, you need to complete an online course, as well as attend a Certification Clinic. You also must also be at least 13 years of age by December 31st.
